Bostonian Tells of Alleged Communication With Dead Psychologist.

Boston, September 8 .- Prof. William James, of Harvard, psychologist and psychical researcher, who died only a few days ago, has sent message to his friends from the spirit world, according to M. S. Ayer, a Boston business Mr. Aver says that the

"Tell my brother that I will transmit a message through this instrument that will prove my individuality when I can manifest more clearly than at this time. I did not realize how difficult it would be to manifest from this place of life to the mortal place.

"There is much for me to learn and many conditions to overcome."

"The above message," said Mr. Ayer, "is given by Prof. James. To us it means that a short time Prof. James will be able to accustom himself to means that a short time Prof. James will be able to accustom himself to his surroundings to the extent that he will be able to give the world a much longer, clearer, and more satisfactory form of message."

"Like all who pass out," continued Mr. Ayer, "Prof. James was bewildered upon his awakening to the highest consciousness, and has not yet regained the conditions necessary to the execution of his clear purpose to enlighten the world in the matter of Spiritualism. This will come."

The sceance is alleged to have taken place Monday at 8 P. M. Several Spiritualists of world-wide repute are reported to have been present.

minister Felt Vibrations.

New York, September 8.—The Rev Frederick A. Wiggin, D. D., a spiritualist and pastor of the Unity Church, of Boston, Mass., announced last Sunday that for a week his control had been in touch with spiritual vibrations which he thought came from Prof. James. He said that his control was not in good working order because he had just returned from a vacation, during which he had not exercised his spiritualistic powers, but that he expected within a week to get a communication from Prof. James in such a form as to convince many materialists.

to communicate with a genius instead of a common soul. The vibrations had continued every night, he said, and had become plainer and plainer, as well as gaining in strength. They were not intelligible, however, he said, at that time. Dr. Wiggin said he had exerted his powers over his control to bring it into communication with Prof. James, and said he regarded it as more than certain that it was Prof. James who was trying to communicate with him, but had been balked by the imperfect action of his own centrol.

Committee Reports Plans for Enlargement of National Home at Bedford City.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Charlottesville, Va., September 8.—The fourth annual reunion of the Virginia State Association, Benevolent and Frotective Order of Elks, came to a close this afternoon with an old-fashioned barbeoue and Brunswick stew, given at "Wilton." the suburban home of J. Anderson Chisholm, the retiring president. The event, which was the crowning feature of the convention, was attended by 400 Elks. This evening and to-night most of the delegates left for home.

The time and place of the next annual convention was left in the hands of the president and three vice-presidents of the association. Several cities have already put in their claims for the reunion.

The annual report of President Chinholm showed that the Alexandria Lodge had become a member of the association during the past year and that there are now in Virginia only four lodges non-members: Portsmouth, Berkley, Winchester and Fredericks-burg.

Mr. Chisholm made two recommendations, both of which were heartly approved by the special committee appointed to consider the president's address. One was the crection of a cult-able Elks' Rest for the beautification of the burial plot of the National Home in the cemetery at Bedford City, as a gift from the Virginia lodges, and the other the organization during the coming year of a contest among the lodges of the State for the exemplification of the ritualistic work of the order. The sum of $50 was appropriated for the purchase of a suitable trophy to be offered as a prize in the contest. The chair named the following committee to carry out the above recommendations: C. S. Johnson, of Roanoke: J. A. Scott, of Lynchburg, and Max F. Lindner, of Richmond.

A committee of five was appointed to formulate plans for attending the Grand Lodge session at Atlantic City next year. It is the desire of the association that the Virginia delegation parade as a body at that gathering. The committee appointed to attend the annual convention of the Grand Lodge at Detroit in the interest of the retention of the Elks' National Home at Bedford City submitted its report, which concluded as follows:

"It is impossible, of course, for your committees to predict with certainty just what will be the outcome of this matter, but it is believed that the question is now settled and that of the

Died in Charlotte, N. C.

A telegram received by friends here nounced the death at an early hour this morning, at her home in Charlotte, N. C., of Mrs. J. Gordon Scott, formerly of Petersburg. Mrs. Scott was Miss Mary Moyler, eldest daughter of the late Dr. and Mrs. J. Edward Moyler, of this city, and was intimately known to and greatly beloved by a large circle of friends in Petersburg. She is survived by her husband and one child, one sister, Mrs. W. R. Carpenter, of Hyattsville, Md., and three brothers—J. E. Moyler, of Roanoke, and John and Harry Moyler, of this city. The remains will be brought here to-morrow morning for burial.

Opening of Subway. The Norfolk and Western tunnel or The Norfolk and Western tunnel or subway, connecting the new passenger station with the Coast Line Railroad tracks, was opened for public use last night. This subway was built for the convenience and safety of the traveling public, and saves the necessity heretofore existing of crossing the Norfolk and Western tracks to reach the Coast Line road. The subway has concrete floor and roof and walls, is about sixty feet long, eight feet six inches wide, seven feet eight inches high, and is lighted by electricity. It has separate entrances and exits for white and colored people.

In Washington last Monday, Labor Day, R. S. Wells and Mrs. Susie Hardy, both of this city, were united in marriage. The bridegroom is a well-known tailor.

Mr. Armen, a traveling representative of the Chalmers-Detroit automobile, was painfully burned this afternoon while ceaning one of the machines at the Percivall garage, on South Sycamore Street. He was in the pit, engaged in cleaning a machine, when it is supposed he stepped upon a match. The ignition of the match caused an explosion of the gasolene vapor, and Mr. Armen was burned about both arms and his face was blistered.

STRYCHNINE IS FOUND.

Analysis of Stomach of Edward Cror well Shows That He Was Polsoned, [Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Wilmington, N. C., September S.—Several weeks ago the charred body of a well-known young white man, Edward Cromwell, was found in a burning hotel building in this city. Subsequent developments led to the arrest of the proprietor of the hotel, J. C. Holly, and he has been held since, waiting an analysis of the stomach of the dead lad. The State Chemist to-day made a report as to his analysis and says that he found enough strychnine in the stomach to bave killed three or four men. There was evidence before that Holly purchased strychnine.

WONDERFUL CURE OF SORE HANDS

Skin Peeled and Flesh Got Hard and Broke-Blood Flowed in Fifty Places-"Single Box of Cuticura Ended Suffering."

"About eleven years ago I was troubled with sore hands, so sore that when I would put them in water the pain would very nearly set me crazy, the skin would peel off and the fiesh would get hard and break. There would be blood flowing from at least fifty places on each hand. Words could never tell the suffering I endured for three years. I tried everything that I was told to use for fully three years, but could get no relief. I tried at least eight different doctors, but none of them seemed to do me any good, as my hands were as bad when I got through doctoring as when I first began. I also tried many remedies, but none of them ever did me one cent's worth of good. I was discouraged and heartsore. I would feel so had mornings when I got up, to think I had to go to work and stand the pain for ten hours, and I often felt like giving up my position.

"Before I started to work mornings I would have to wrap every finger up separately, so as to try and keep them soft and then wear gloves over the rags to keep the grease from getting on my work. At night I would have to wear gloves in bed. In fact, I had to wear gloves in bed. In fact, I had to wear gloves in bed. In fact, I had to wear gloves all the time. After doctoring for three years, and spending much money, a single box of Cuticura Ointment ended all my sufferings. It's been eight years since I used any and I don't know what sore hands'are now, and never lost a day's work while using Cuticura Ointment. Thomas A. Clancy, 310 N. Montgomery St., Trenton, N.
